DONOR CHARTER

The Guidelines for Charitable Organisations on Fundraising from the Public sets out guidelines on the Commitment to Donors. This includes the commitment that the Crann Centre will inform donors and prospective donors that it complies with such guidelines in the form of a Donor Charter.

Donor Charter

As a charity seeking donations from the public, Crann aims to comply with the Guidelines for Charitable Organisations on Fundraising from the Public:

We pledge to treat all our donors with respect, honesty and openness. We commit to being accountable and transparent so that donors and prospective donors can have full confidence in Crann. We promise we will effectively apply your gifts to us for their intended purposes.

We commit that you, our donors and prospective donors will:

- Be informed of our mission, and of the way the way we intend to use donated resources.
- Be informed of the identity of those serving on our governing board and that the board will exercise prudent judgement in its governing responsibilities at all times.
- Have access to the organisation's most recent financial statements.
- Be assured your gifts will be used for the purposes for which they were given.
- Receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
